Biology Club

Officers
 President: Eric Coontz
 Vice-President: Gerald Gerardi
 Secretary: Cheryl Remillard
 Treasurer: George DiLiddo
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. John O'Malley

One of the most enthusiastic clubs at North High is the Biology Club, under the able direction of Mr. John O'Malley. Its members have learned much about organic matter from guest speakers and movies. Well planned programs have made this club a big success. This year was highlighted by a trip to the Boston Science Museum during the spring.

Electronics Club

Officers:
 President: Bruce Betterley
 Vice-President: Edward Kontowt
 Secretary: Casimir Burikowski
 Treasurer: Edward Eck
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. Joseph A. Hamelin

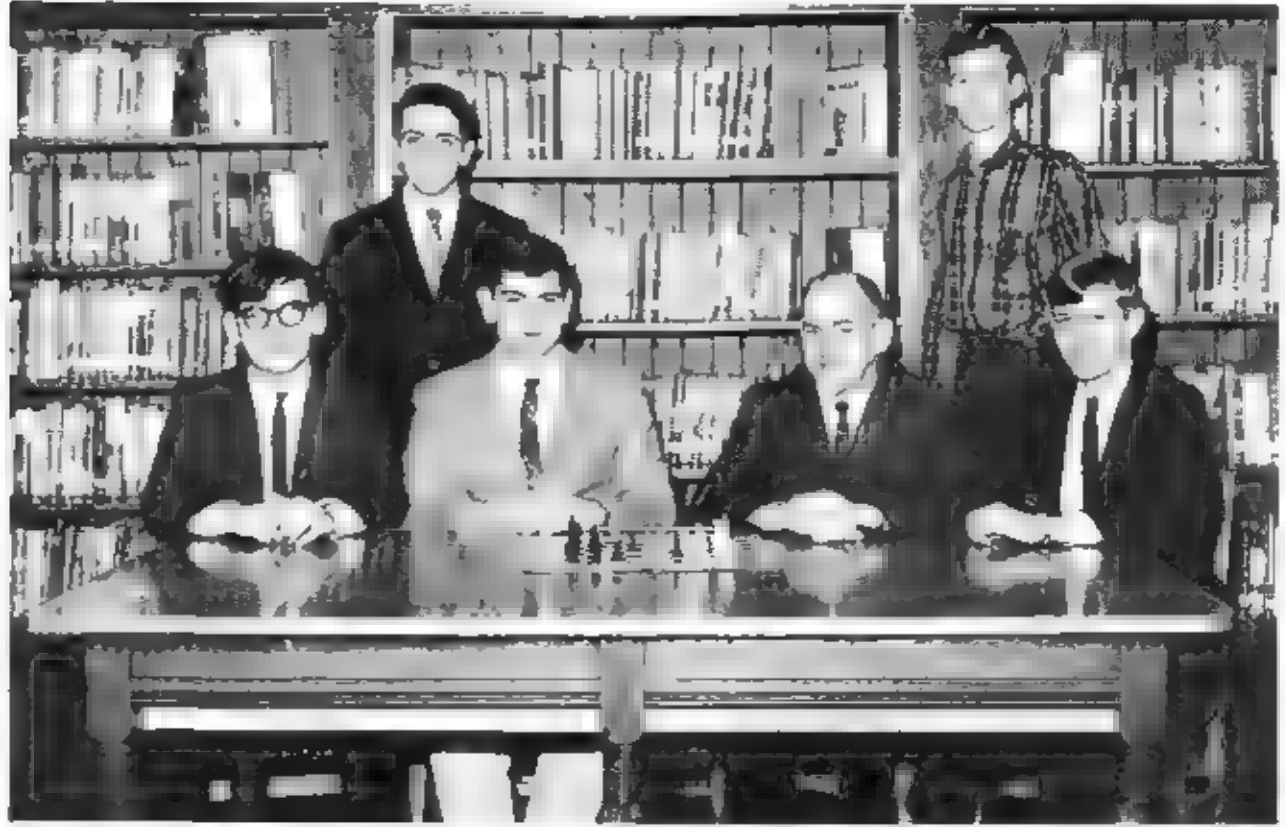

The purpose of the Electronics Club is to promote good will and fellowship between electrons. The club meets weekly and has its own amateur radio station.

Chess Club

Officers:
 President: Sam Manoogian
 Vice-President: Ennio Mingolla
 Secretary: Richard Malesky
 Treasurer: John Manzano
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. Joseph E. Richard

The purpose of the Chess Club has been to offer an opportunity for organized competition. Despite the small membership, the enjoyment and improvement found in the game have made each session worthwhile and rewarding.

Math Club

Officers
 President: Carlton Taylor
 Vice-President: Francis Zarette
 Secretary: Janet Boorky
 Treasurer: Sam Manoogian
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. Thomas R. O'Brien

The Math Club has been one of the more active clubs at North this year. Lectures were given by members of the club and of the Math Department. The club's trip to M.I.T. was the high point of the year.

Officers:
 President: John Goldrosen
 Vice-President: Paul McGeary
 Secretary: Gail Howe
 Treasurer: John Martinez
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. Thomas McCarthy

Dramatic Club

One of the most popular and active clubs at North is the Dramatic Club. A large and active membership this year helped to contribute to the great success of the club. The highlight of its many activities was the production of the comedy "George Washington Slept Here" by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman and directed by Paul Rutledge.

Record Board

The Record, North High's only monthly publication, under the able supervision of Mr. Andrew Power, has been enlarged this year due to the addition of the North Annex. Accompanying the regular features; Salisbury Sauce, North Poll, Editorials, and Boys' and Girls' Sports; the Record has added Walnut Whispers, a column similar to Salisbury Sauce.

Officers
 President: James Cuccaro
 Vice-President: Susan Foley
 Secretary: June Poske
 Treasurer: Paul Giorgio
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. John F. Dowd

Student Council

The main purposes of the Student Council are to improve student-teacher relationships and to develop attitudes of good citizenship. This year was an exceptionally busy one, since the Council sponsored a dance, a varsity-faculty basketball game, and a student exchange program with Nashoba Regional High School. Under the efficient leadership of Mr. Dowd, the Council hopes to continue to prosper and fulfill its responsibilities.

Chorus

This year, the North High Chorus, under the able direction of Mr. William Myers, sang in many school assemblies and the annual Christmas Pageant. It also provided the annual radio broadcast of Christmas music from the Worcester County National Bank.

Le Cercle Francais

Co-Consuls:
Marian Budzyna
Anne Wolf
Scriba
Beverly Alfano
Quaestor:
Thomas Lynch

The French Club, under the capable supervision of Mrs. Cormick, provides a source for enhancing its members' study of the French language. During the year the club viewed a movie, heard a lecture concerning Expo '67, held a Christmas party, and purchased a bulletin board. In addition to this, the members sold candy to finance their trip to the United Nations.

Latin Club

President:
Carolyn Buell
Vice-President:
Kathleen Houlihan
Secretary:
Anna Maria Nocella
Faculty Advisor:
Albina F. B. Cormick
Latin Faculty Advisor:
Gertrude A. Shea

The Latin Club, under the direction of Miss Gertrude Shea, is designed to stimulate appreciation of Roman Civilization. The club's Christmas and Valentine parties were two of the highlights of the year.

Spanish Club

Officers:
 President: Thomas Holland
 Vice-President: Paula Ginese
 Secretary: Margaret Foran
 Treasurer: Paul Ferraro
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. George Wood

This year's Spanish Club began its activities with a bake-sale early in the year. Later meetings included a visit to the Spanish section of the Art Museum, a trip to a Spanish film showing, and a featured speaker.

Library Club

Officers:
 President: Vincent Nocella
 Co-President: Bruce Childs
 Vice-President: Anna Maria Nocella
 Secretary: Donna Martello
 Treasurers: Barbara Bernard
 Karen Harris
 Faculty Advisor: Bernice C. Gallagher

With the assistance of the librarian, Mrs. Gallagher, this informative group of aides has acquired a knowledge of good books and library technique. The annual faculty tea highlighted the year's activities.

Band

Under the direction of Mr. William J. Myers, this year's band provided fine music for Parents' Night, Class Day, and the regular school assemblies. The band is truly one of North's proud boasts

Pep Club

Officers:
President: Gordon Kay
Vice-President: Eileen Villatico
Secretary: Betty Pedone
Treasurer: Elaine Salerno
Faculty Advisor: Mr. George Mara

The Pep Club, under the guidance of Mr. George Mara, not only encouraged student support of varsity sports, but also sponsored eighteen trophies which were awarded to both boys and girls who excelled in their respective sports. The club also sponsored a bake sale, two dances, and buses for the cheerleaders' tournaments.

Skating Club

Officers

President: Richard Butts
 Vice-President: Sandra Ross
 Secretary: Shirley Germain
 Treasurer: Jimmie Ames
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. George P. Bonardi

The purpose of the Skating Club is two-fold, social and recreational. During the club's thirteen years of existence, a few members have shown exceptional ability in skating and this year is no exception. The Club made an annual visit to Boston to see the Ice Follies, and an annual picnic closed the season.

Ski Club

President: Peter Stewart
 Vice-President: Sue Foley
 Secretary: Pat Stepanski
 Treasurer: Frank Biscardi
 Faculty Advisor: Mr. William A. Grigas

Under the able guidance of Mr. Grigas, the Ski Club has remained one of the school's most active organizations. During the winter break they spent four days vacationing at Mt. Stowe, giving them the opportunity to improve their skiing ability.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders have had a busy year. Always full of pep and energy, they have cheered for all of North's football and basketball games, entered three tournaments, were in the Senior Revue, and raised money for new sweaters by sponsoring several bake-sales. Although there were fewer cheerleaders than usual this year, they have done a wonderful job of keeping up the North spirit with the assistance of Miss Barbara M. Shugrue.

Football & All-City Football

The boys' football team, headed by Mr. Charles D'Elia, compiled a less than enviable 0 and 6 record for the 1966-1967 season. The team, however, never gave up their quest for a victory. The team's undying spirit was shown in the final game of the season against an always powerful Leominster High team. In that game the scrappy Polar Bears fought valiantly all the way down to the final buzzer and handed Leominster some of the toughest competition seen all season.

All-city guard James Walsh and Coach D'Ella

Cross Country

This year's cross country team, one of the best to represent North in recent years, compiled a 7-2 won-loss record and placed second in the inter-high short and long run; Roland Marinello; William Wilson; Daniel run and third in the long run racing the North team to second place overall with a total of 85 points "W" winners were: Captain, David Nylund, fourth in the long run; Roland Marinello; William Wilson; Daniel DiStefano; and Martin Munro. Next year's team promises to be equally as good, with the nucleus of the team returning

Field Hockey

This year the girls' field hockey team met with two obstacles—a near shortage of players and an ailing coach. Although Mrs. Begin was in the hospital for most of the season. Mrs. Lonergan coached the twelve spirited girls, led by captain Barbara Misiewicz and co-captain Nancy Quillen, to a third place standing in Inter-High competition.

Winter Shorts

Basketball

This year's basketball team, under the able coaching of Mr. O'Malley, fought hard and played well but only managed a 3 and 15 season. As those of us who saw most of the games will remember, however, the boys deserved a better break. Almost all the games were exciting and not decided until the final minutes. Those who saw it will long remember the tremendous upset over a superior St. John's team, which was the highlight of the season. Of special interest was the play of Captain David Taylor and the back court duo of Richard "Sonny" Price and James Chavis. Since both Price and Chavis are returning next year, the future looks bright for next year's team.

Indoor Track

The indoor track team with, Michael Clemens, Gerald DiRienzo, and Craig Perkins as captains, compiled a 3-2-2 record and also placed second in the inter high with 29 points. "W" winners were George Shattuck, Michael Clemens, and Gerald DiRienzo. Also, William Wilson, Martin Munro, Roland Marinello, and Craig Perkins winning W's in the relays

George Shattuck ended a fine indoor season for North by winning the Massachusetts Indoor State Class B 50-yard dash championship.

The following people placed in the inter-high indoor championships.
 George Shattuck, 1st (300 yards), 2nd (40 yard dash)
 Maximiliano de la Sota 4th (40 yard dash)
 Gerald DiRienzo 1st (high hurdles)
 Randy Croteau 2nd (600 yards)
 Mike Clemens 1st (shot put)
 William Wilson 2nd (1000 yards)
 Roland Marinello 4th (mile)
 Ray Silva 4th (600 yards)

Ice Hockey

Under the able supervision of Mr. Brierly, the hockey team fought to a good record of 5-4-1. One of the highlights of the season was the victory over North's archrival, South, 6-4. The hockey team finished the season in a tie for second place with Burncoat Senior High.

Girl's Basketball

This year, determined to better last year's showing, the girls, coached by Mrs. Mary Begin, practiced very hard for many hours. Their efforts paid off as they placed second in the city, losing only to Doherty.

The Varsity was composed primarily of seniors. Anna Makibbin was Captain, and Barbara Miciswicz and Pauline Safford were the Co-Captains. The three players elected to the All-City team were Barbara Miciswicz, Jo Lee Rabb, and Pauline Safford.

Spring Shorts

Baseball

Coach Warren Brierly and his ballplayers, though young and inexperienced, are looking forward to a very favorable season. The team is relying on sluggers Mike Simmarano (Captain), Dave Cordella and Chuck Simone, as well as pitchers Ted Vartanian and Al Bonoliglio to have a fine season.

Outdoor Track

The outdoor track team, lead by Captains Maximiliano de la Sota, George Shattuck and William Wilson, is expected to do very well. This year's team shows a lot of depth in all events, especially the dashes with George Shattuck returning to defend his 100 yards and 220 yards inter-high titles; Maximiliano de la Sota in the 100 yards, 220 yards and relay, Randy Croteau, a very promising junior (220 yards, low hurdles); and John Ciccarelli (100 yards, 220 yards)

In the distance events William Wilson returns to defend his inter-high half-mile title backed up by Roland Marinello in the longer distances. Gerald DiRienzo is expected to do well in the hurdles. Mike Clemens, indoor shot put titlist is also expected to do well in his specialty

Golf

With five repeaters from last year's winning squad, this year's golf team can look forward to an excellent season. Under the able guidance of Mr. Ferris, and with starring performances by seniors Ward Kontowtt, Glenn Tuomi and Bruce Childs, the team's prospects are indeed bright.

Boy's Tennis

Up to the time of this writing, the tennis team has had four practices and no matches. Exactly how the team will make out in the course of the season is a big question mark.

The only returning veterans this year are captain Carlton Taylor, in his third year of competition, and Peter Soloman, "shooting tennis" for North for the second time. New prospects include seniors Paul Ferraro, Mike DiBenedetto, and Bill Zambano.

With a little luck, the team could conceivably cop the Inter-high title.

Girl's Tennis

At the time of this writing, 75 girls have signed up to vie for 12 varsity positions. Players look forward to a successful season.

Part I

Do any of you seniors remember your first exciting day of high school? In the fall of 1963, the first members of our class entered North High. As we climbed the large stairway in front of the building, it suddenly came to us that no longer were we in grammar school or junior high. We were on the threshold of a "new" frontier.

Upon entering the building, we were all told to take seats in the auditorium. At this time, no one knew where the auditorium was, and with the help of some wise characters a few of us ended up in what seemed to be a gymnasium with a circular track overhead.

When we all finally found the auditorium we were told to take seats up front. Faces which we hadn't seen since the previous June became animated and conversations were heard all over. A hush came over the multitude when Mr. French, North's principal for the last 14 years, greeted us and gave us a short introduction to the school. After that, we were on our own, and of course there were more directions given by those same wise characters—directions as to the locations of elevators, coke machines, and smoking lounges.

To many, the afternoon session was heaven. Under what other conditions could we stay up all night and sleep all morning? However, as the weeks progressed, we were awakened to the fact that we were deprived of participation in most of the school's sports clubs and other activities. All we could do was sit back and applaud all of the upperclassmen who were participating in the annual play, Senior Variety Show, band, chorus, etc. For a while we had lost the feeling of belonging, but the Polar Bear spirit came through.

The following year, with the end of the afternoon session we immediately felt like a part of the school. All the doors to extracurricular activities open to us.

In the year 1965, not only did the Beatles, Rollingstones and Dave Clark Five rise to stardom, but our sophomore class became Juniors.

After having lost part of our class to the new Burncoat Senior High, we had to better acquaint ourselves with the people who now made up North High.

Class rings were a big event in that year. The black stone, surrounded by the class year and Polar Bear, symbolized the North High spirit which had led us through the previous two years. Elected to lead us through that coming year were David Nylund, President; Alexis Providakes, Vice-President; Francis Zarette, Treasurer; and Patricia Stepanski, Secretary. Mr. Libro Ciani was our very capable advisor.

Six of us, John Goldrosen, Tania Travers, George Deliddo, Peter Solomon, Carlton Taylor, and Richard (Goodman) were on the "Record Board."

Soon it was April and our Northern fancy turned to "The Spirit of 66," the annual Senior Review.

Our class was well represented in that show. With the approach of summer, talk of the Junior Prom filled the air. The Hillcrest Country Club of Leicester was honored by the presence of the Class of 67. The prom was entitled "Some Enchanted Evening." Francis Scricco and Linda David were named co-chairmen, and many others worked together to make our first big class effort a success. Dianne Tyler was chosen queen, and Patricia Stepanski, Carol Bernard, Judy Chartier, and Carrie Spofford made up her court.

Carlton Taylor, the North High representative of the Worcester Junior Chamber of Commerce, represented us in Washington D.C. Francis Scricco was the recipient of the Harvard Book Prize.

In September of 1966, we entered for the final year of our high school education. It became evident that many of our former schoolmates would not be with us for our senior year. The new Doherty Memorial opened, making North a new school in itself. Not only did we consist of the Salisbury Street buildings and the Worcester Armory, but we also now had the remaining building of the old Commerce High which became known as the North Annex.

It's a fact that we did more traveling to various classes than any other school in the city. There was Industrial Arts on Foster Street, Boys' gym at the Lincoln Sq. Boys' Club, Business courses on Chestnut St. at the Annex and various classes in the Worcester Armory.

We had three different principals during the first ten weeks of school. The first was Mr. French, who retired. He was followed by Mr. O'Connor, who was followed by Mr. Bernstein.

James Walsh became the sole senior to be selected "All City" on a football team, which went through a perfect record of losses.

In track, five received all-city W's. We were Mike Clements, Gerry DeRienzo, George Shattuck, William Wilson, and Craig Perkins.

Dave Taylor, captain of the Varsity Basketball team, lead the Bears through some well played games.

The Senior Class Officers turned out to be exactly the same as last year. Craig Perkins was our Student Government representative and Kathleen McCarthy and Judith Hutchinson were honored by the D.A.R.

The Senior Superlatives were John Goldrosen and Tania Travers, most brilliant; Francis Scricco and Kathy McCarthy, contributed most to the class; David Nylund and Alexis Providakes, most popular; Roberto Quarta and Carol Hammar, best looking; William Zambarano and Betty Pedone, most talented; James Walsh and Barbara Misiewicz, most athletic; Francis Zarette and Paula Barton, best dressed; and Craig Perkins and Sue Wall, best natured.

The Senior Class has congratulations for the National Merit Scholarship finalists it produced. They are John Goldrosen, Tania Travers, and Anne Maxwell.

The Yearbook staff was chosen and the Northern Lights was left in capable hands, under the able direction of Mrs. Patricia Akerson.

In March, the Footlight Players gave a delightful presentation of "George

The setting for a happy and prosperous future has been well established by our stay at North. No one can ever take from us the knowledge which we gained at North High. The warm friendships that we have secured have made us mature young adults who will successfully face "new frontiers" and form the "Great Society."

Part II

Thank you, fellow classmates, for allowing me to tell the history of the Class which started out as the Class of 1967 of the High School of Commerce, Worcester, Massachusetts.

Entering Senior High School was one of the biggest steps we took toward maturity. Actually in 1963-64 we were not together in one group "on the hill." Some of us were still in junior high schools, but for those who came to Commerce as freshmen, these were days of feeling very grown up, especially since our school was "down town." However, Principal Carl Berg saw to it that we toed the line as the "babies of the school," and Assistant Principal James Manning helped him.

In September, 1964, as sophomores we became one happy group, now called the Class of 1967 of the High School of Commerce, and definitely dedicated to acquiring business skills along with a regular high school education. Friendships made that year are still flourishing.

When we became sophomores, Dr. John Connor became the fifth principal of Commerce. Mr. John Pierce came as his assistant and many of us remember Mr. Pierce fondly for the way he handed out P.M.'s with a smile.

During the year 1964-65 our Commerce cheerleaders placed second in the 18th Annual David Prouty Tournament in Spencer and better still, brought home the first place trophy in the Western Massachusetts Cheerleaders Tournament held in Chicopee.

Our Junior year at Commerce began in September, 1965. Class officers elected were: Richard Butts, President; Jean LeBlanc, Vice President; Victoria Pellegrino, Secretary; and Diane DiBaro, Treasurer.

In February, 1966, Dr. Connor left us to become principal of the new Leo T. Doherty Memorial High School, from whence he advanced to the office of Superintendent of the Worcester Public Schools, upon the resignation of Dr. John Davis on December 31, 1966. Dr. Connor was a wise mentor of our group during the all-too-short time he was with us "on the hill."

Mr. Benjamin Bernstein became our principal, the sixth principal of Commerce, in February, 1966. We loved him from the start and missed him when he was forced to be absent for many weeks due to a serious illness in the spring of that year. Happily he "bounced back" in time to guide the official closing of Commerce High School.

On April 1, 1966, John Graham, a Commerce senior, was chosen by Governor on Student Government Day at the State House in Boston. This was a proud day for Commerce High.

The football team that year, with John Whalen as coach, went through the season as the only undefeated team in the city. Five members of this team were named to the Worcester Telegram and Evening Gazette All City Football Squad: Michael Fitzpatrick, Robert Hazard, Leonard Cooper, Richard Dube, and James O'Leary.

Our track team, called "The Mercuries," paced many a track team by winning twenty-nine consecutive meets, under the excellent coaching of Mr. John Wallace.

It is said that all good things must come to an end, but this fact did not lessen the sharp melancholy we all felt when it was announced that the Worcester School Committee had decided to sell to the Paul Revere Insurance Company the two older buildings of our school. These buildings were to be razed, and the High School of Commerce, which was then the oldest high school in Worcester, would be no more. Worse than the loss of the buildings would be the severing of close daily contacts with friends, since now our class members were to be distributed among the students of the other high schools in Worcester. There would not be room for all of us in the one remaining building "on the hill."

In September, 1966, 172 seniors of our original Class of 1967 came back to Walnut Street to find a demolition squad busy tearing down our beloved Commerce High. As we went to classes in the so-called "new building" across the street, we daily were forced to watch the workmen smashing the walls and "the halls of ivy" of our alma mater. Now as we look over at the empty lot, we feel somewhat empty too.

ing was re-named "North High Annex," and we had to get used to the fact that we who had begun high school at Commerce would be graduated from North High. We are grateful that Mr. Bernstein, who became the principal of the integrated school, has been such a wonderful unifying influence.

The representatives of the Annex, David Raphael, Jean LeBlanc, Victoria Pellegrino, and Veronica Capone, worked together with the class officers in organizing Senior activities and graduation plans.

As the months flew by, in this our last year, the spirit of rivalry between North Salisbury and North Annex has given way to a real spirit of cooperation.

There were, of course, many changes in the administration of North Annex this year. Our beloved Mr. McAleer became ill, and Miss Mary Carrol retired after 25 years of teaching. New teachers were appointed to replace the large number of those transferred to Doherty or other high schools. Mr. Manning became chief principal at North Annex, with Mr. Creamer as his assistant. Among the new faces on the faculty were Miss Burns, Miss Jackson, Miss Magnusson, Miss Merchant, Mr. Nordstrom, and Mr. Rose.

Also the Home Economics department of our school, under the direction of Mrs. Memory McBain, joined with the girls of Doherty High School in a glamorous fashion show in April.

To end this history, let it be recorded that we, the Class of 1967, thank most sincerely the principals, the assistant principals, the teachers, the clerical staffs, and the custodians who have helped to develop us in these years which we have spent at the school "on the hill."

President's Address

Teachers, Parents, Friends, and Classmates:

It is my sincere pleasure to welcome you here this evening to the Class Night exercises of 1967.

As we gather here this evening to reminisce upon the years that we have spent together at North High School, there is not one of us who does not recollect the moments of ecstatic joy and those of disconsolation that we have shared together. Each one of these occurrences has led us along a circuitous path that comes to an abrupt halt here at this assembly. Now is the moment when we should acknowledge the people who assisted us in our times of distress, gave us guidance when it was necessary, and sought to ameliorate our lives by furnishing us with direction, those people being our teachers and parents.

North High has encountered something entirely new this year with approximately one third of its student body in a building nearly one mile away. This in certain instances caused a slight bit of confusion, but in others proved to be most fruitful.

This evening ministers a two-fold purpose. For us students, it is the commencement of our secondary school education. This evening is also the act of a beginning. Many of us will enter institutions of higher learning in just a few short months. Others of us will enlist in the branches of our country's services, while still others of us will consider the world of business as our endeavor.

Former president Franklin D. Roosevelt once said, "When you get to the end of your rope, tie a knot and hang on." The manner in which this world is evolving nowadays with its day to day uncertainty of existence causes the United States to look for more people who will "hang on" when the going gets rough. The well-being of the United States in the future depends upon the education that its schools afford today. The threat of the termination of freedom comes with the increase in Communism. We, the youth of America, are the country's future leaders and workers, and without an education, could we keep the country standing? I do not believe so, and I think if you analyze the question, you would feel the same way as I do.

North High School has helped each of us students in so many ways. It has given us an insight as to what the world will demand of us in the future years, whether they be spent in college or at some other vocation. During our years at North we have been trained to assume a greater sense of responsibility. Through the use of the facilities at North, there has been a broadening of our characters. Yes, this school has prepared us for many aspects of life, but the education that it has bestowed upon us would have to be the greatest gift of all.

In conclusion, I would like to say that each one of us students sits here and is proud to be a North High graduate. We are not the only ones who share in this pride. I believe that our teachers and parents share equally in it too, for it was they who coaxed and guided us along. I would like to take this opportunity now, students, in wishing you all the success in the world as you wander through the great maze, which is called "LIFE." Thank you

"George Washington Slept Here"

"George Washington Slept Here"

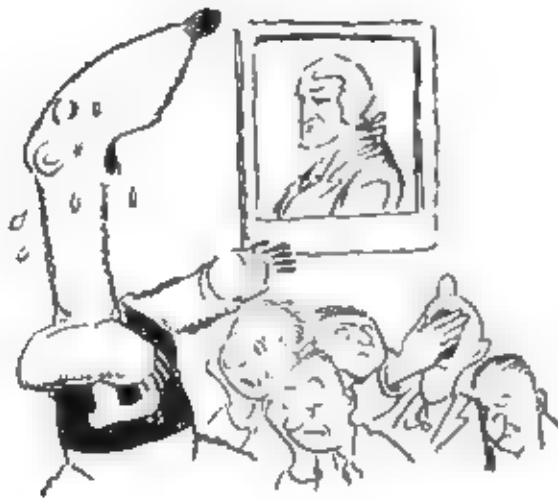

by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman

The Footlight Players presented "George Washington Slept Here" on March 9th and 10th and by all accounts it was a great success.

The play starred Jerry Olson and Gail Howe as Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fuller and Paul McGeary as the not-so-rich Uncle Stanley. Steve Mirick as the farmhand, Mr. Kimber, and John Martinez as the mischievous Raymond also had key roles.

The play was directed by Mr. Paul Rutledge with the able assistance of the club's advisor, Mr. Thomas McCarthy.

Those who saw it will long remember the great performance of the cast as one of their treasured memories of North High School.

"Out of this World"

At precisely eight o'clock P M., on April 6, and 7, the Senior Class of North High School presented its 14th annual, Senior Revue. Assisted by George Di Liddo and Elizabeth Pedone, Miss B. Evelyn McClure directed the trip "OUT OF THIS WORLD."

Hosts for the Thursday night trip were Francis Omlanowicz and Jean Martinez. The second night's voyage was hosted by Susan Wall and Roberto Quarta.

Class Prophecy

We've just returned from our first trip to Mars and we want to tell you all about it. We never thought, when we were at North High, that we'd be flying to Mars. The theme of our Senior Revue, was the prize for winning a trivia contest sponsored by John Goldrosen's world-renown newspaper. You'd be surprised at how many Northies have moved to Mars. It certainly was good to see them all.

Nancy Knowlton and Maryann Ogden piloted our spaceship which was designed by Casimir Bulikowski. Due to their incomparable astronautical talents we reached our destination without encountering any serious difficulties. Our gracious stewardesses on the trip were Sue Foley and Pat Stepanski.

When we landed we were welcomed by Martians John Martinez, Sue Wall and Roberto Quarta, who introduced us to colonial governor Dave Nylund and mayor David Raphael. City councillors Bruce Benoit, Eric Coontz, Donald Holloway, Sam Manoogian, and Jimmy Cuccaro were there to greet us too. Among reporters at the press conference later were Phil Torgersen, Carol Vacca, Anne Wolfe, and Kathleen Houlihan. A special monorail recently invented by Francis Scricco took us to our luxurious hotel, one of a chain owned on Mars by Doug Coe.

We relaxed that night after our big trip by reading the Mars Record, a weekly magazine, and listening to the radio. We listened to station WMAR, owned by Dave D'Argentis, and heard singer Jane Hofschure and trumpet player Bill Zambarano.

The Mars Record, we found, is edited by Kathi McCarthy with George DiLiddo as circulation manager and Carlton Taylor as business manager. Frank Biscardi and Edwin Smith are the magazine's top photographers. In the Record we read that the biggest hit on Marsway this year was written by Anna Makibbin. It stars Gail Howe and Jerry Olson with Elaine Jaffe. The review of the play was written by Barbara Hrlow. We found that Jim Stevens' latest book was reviewed by critic Marion Budzyna. On the show business pages we read that the year's most popular revue features a dance act with Graig Perkins, Gladys Knights, and Shirley Greene and another act with tap dancer Betty Pedone. We read, too, that Alexis Provdakes is opening at the Marstropolitan Opera House this week. We immediately made plans to go and hear her.

The section on medical news discussed the research that Vincent Nocella has done on the Purple Pox, a dreaded Martian disease. He was aided by medical technicians Anna Nocella, Sharon Gerardi, and Lucille Ferranti.

We turned to the science pages and discovered that Tom Derosiers and Mark Riordan, world-famous scientists, have synthesized a new material called "elementation" which can be used in the building of glass edifices. George Silaidos was the first to use the material in the construction of a new city hall. James St. Armand has used it in the making of car glass.

In reading the news of the world of education we found that Sandra Ross is the head of a new school for retarded children with Jeanne Cote and Kathy Foran as assistants. There are many other new schools on Mars, we read. Jimmie Ames has been appointed dean of the new school of accounting where Eleanor Russell is head of the accounting classes. Genovefa Notidis and Linda Laflamme have started a school for IBM operators and modern secretaries with Susan Mapleback and Joey Marcinkus and Maryann Quaglieri as teachers.

Joanne Healy, our guide and member of the Martian Chamber of Commerce, met us in the lobby of the hotel the next morning to take us on a tour of the colony. She took us first to the United Planets building. We talked to Carolyn Buell, secretary of the General Assembly and those well-known diplomats Paul McGeary, and Peter Solomon. In the main hall of the building we met Janice Elloian and Carol McGrath, teachers taking their classes on a tour of the building. Judith Hutchinson, Barbara Ford and Jacqueline Dubin teach the children of diplomats at the United Planets School.

Joanne took us next to the Mars Art Museum known for its extensive collection of works by artists from all planets. The first exhibit of paintings and sculpture we looked at were by Francis Dudzinski and Patricia Richter. Jane Yerow had a one-man show of her work there at the time which was really excellent. We also saw paintings by such famous artists as Laura Berg, Dianne Desalvio and Priscilla Poske. The building is brand-new and the interior decoration was done by Paula Holly.

We had dinner with Joanne at the exclusive Four Planets Club where we found homemaker Tania Travers, playing bridge with Janet Boorky, Jeanne Miller and Anne Maxwell. At the club there was a showing of the latest way-out fashions for women on Mars. Many of the fashions came from the Gretchen Duncan House of Fashion Design and were created by such designers as Judith Sarles, Paul Sellig, Sandra Alfreds and Sharon Campbell. They were modeled by Jean LeBlanc, Carol Hammar, Judy Terpo, Jeanine Marks and Kris Takman.

After lunch Joanne took us on a tour of some of the Martian industries. Bill Peluso Inc. manufactures astronauts' helmets. Linda Pellegrino, as representative for the company, talked to us about it. We found that Ronald Schonberg is vice-president and Beverly Ballotte is his executive secretary. Then we went to the Edward Haglund Toy Company where Louis Monfreda and Francis Omilanowicz are vice-presidents. Ruth Senecal is secretary to the president while Barbara Kisten and Anna Leone are secretaries for Fran and Louis.

We had dinner at the hotel, after which we went to Mars' newest sports arena. There, we saw a basketball game with all players Dave Taylor, Peter Stewart. We saw notices about football players, Dennis Head, Bill Katter, Tom Toney, Walter Andrews, Paul Oliveri, and Mike Clements. Track stars George Shattuck, Gerry DiRienzo, and Max de la Sota are to be in the Planetary Olympics the next week. Glenn Tuomi we saw playing hockey and Ward Kontowtt was polishing his golf irons.

We spent the next week exploring Mars and visiting its many points of interest. Mars has an exceptionally good educational system. We visited several schools since we were interested in comparing them to schools such as North on Earth. We found many old Northies teaching school there. Among them, Jean Dumas teaches kindergarten and Phyllis Thomas teaches first grade. Holly Abusamra, Julia DeFeudis and Diane Tyer also teach elementary school. Laura Grella is the school's secretary and Al Awad, the principal. In the high school we found Judy Masiello teaching French, Carol Bernard teaching Russian, Kris Irvine with a biology class, and Don Kimball is a guidance counselor. Linda David, Frank Raffa, Elaine Salerno, Gerald Gerardi, Bill Ritacco and Al Witofsky are all high school teachers. James Demake is a football coach. Bobby Hazard teaches physical education to the boys, and Barbara Misiewicz is the girl's favorite gym teacher.

Since one of us had a tooth ache, we visited a new dental lab before continuing with our tour. Richar Howarth took care of the tooth quickly. While we were waiting we chatted with his assistants Veronica Capone and Paula Barton.

The last night we spend on Mars we were taken to the opening of a new show, produced by Kenneth Kasper and Ronald Daigle. The highpoint of the show was a modern dance act by Linda Roussin, Sharon Iannotti and Donna Gabriella. One of our favorite acts was sung and danced by Louise Sargent, Phyllis Silverman and Lisa Wallick. Angelo Denittis and James Ducharme sang folk songs with Angelo's guitar accompaniment.

The next morning we boarded our rocketship and with John Desantis as our pilot we flew back to Earth. We were very glad to be home again, but it was a great trip. As a matter of fact, it was out of this world

Starting in a pottery shop in 1885, we've become the world's largest manufacturer of abrasive products—and of many other products, from lightweight Noroc body armor, now in use in Vietnam, to heavy-duty encapsulating machines, improving health and nutrition in such far off places as Australia. We're now 13 divisions strong with headquarters still in Worcester, Massachusetts, and 36 plants in 17 countries of the free world.
